Title: [REDACTED]

THOMAS J. ROONEY - VICTIM;
THREAT TO US CONGRESSMAN

Synopsis: To open case and set leads for Miami, Fort Pierce Resident Agency.

Details: On April 19, 2012, US Congressman Thomas Rooney's office made a "robo call" to thousands of constituents in the 16th Congressional District for a type of telephonic town hall meeting with the congressman. After the town hall meeting was over a male called the congressman's Punta Gorda office, 226 Taylor Street, Suite 200, Punta Gorda, Florida, telephone number 941-575-9101. The call was answered by [REDACTED]. The male asked why he received a call from Congressman Rooney's office. (The caller ID for the "robo call" showed as the Punta Gorda office telephone number). The male told [REDACTED] that he was going to shoot the congressman. The male then called back the congressman's Punta Gorda office from the same telephone number [REDACTED] and left a voice mail message. The male said during the message that he would kill the congressman. Congressman Rooney's office notified the US Capitol Police, the FBI, and the Punta Gorda Police Department. The US Capitol Police have a recording of the voice mail and forwarded the same.
